3. Dr. Basavaraj Pujar - Member
4. Smt.Dr.P.V.Pujar - Member
5. Sri. Ishappa Doddamani - Member (Physical Director)

The above mentioned committees as per the UGC guidelines have taken the following several steps to curb the Ragging activities in the college campus.

1. In first place, to create students discipline in campus, we have list out the rules and regulations of our college and made the students should aware of them at the time of their admission to the college itself.
2. Beside this, in order to avoid and curb students Ragging activities on the campus, an awareness and orientation programme was arranged in the beginning of the academic year by involving fresher and other committee members concerned and having regular interaction and counseling with the students.
3. Further, the committee has taken steps to :
  - Information relating to Ragging and its impact were displayed on the Notice Board.
  - Mention of Anti-Ragging warning in the institutions Prospectus & Admission Forms.
  - Installed CCTV Cameras at vital points in the college campus.
  - Surprise inspection of Hostels, Students accommodation and Canteens
  - Students can access the National Anti Ragging Help Line 1800-180-5522.

As a result of which no major ragging incident have been reported in our college during this year. Thus, our campus is free from any Ragging incidents. It is all possible because, due to the academic punctuality, student's friendly faculty, conduct of orientation programme to the fresher, the keen supervision of Anti Ragging squad and above all the disciplined administration of Principal and Management. However, as and when some minor students differences and dissatisfaction were immediately attended and resolved by the committee by issuing oral warning to the concerned students.
