Taking at the college level, every girl should have high aims in life and to achieve them need not seek the help or advise from the parents or elder brother. In his inagural speech Shri T Shrinvas addressed to our students about the purpose of celebrating Internation day of a Girl child since 2012 in memory of Malala Yousfzai recovery of her health. He discussed about real need of women empowerment is in their own hands. Because unless a women raise her voice and demand for the facilities provided by the Government, the facilities would go in vague. He demanded from the girls to have thought processing on every harassment and demand for their rights through proper channel.

The mindset that a girl child is a liability needs to be changed and this requires happening at grass root level.
